INTRODUCTION

The Alfred L. Parker Papers are centered around a business owned by Alfred Parker located in Hartsville, Tennessee. The Alfred L. Parker Papers are a gift of Mr. Ray Buchanan, Hartsville, Tennessee.

The collection occupies .84 cubic feet of shelf space, and numbers approximately 500 items. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Alfred L. Parker Papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Alfred L. Parker Papers, containing approximately 500 items, span the period 1918-1931. The collection consists of account books, accounts, advertisements, a Christmas card, contracts, correspondence, a court record, financial documents, an insurance policy, land records, a lease, political handbills, and school papers.

The Alfred L. Parker Papers consist of documents relating to the operation of a business, A.L. Parker General Merchandise and Country Produce, located in Hartsville, Tennessee. The business was destroyed by fire in 1926, but soon afterward Mr. Parker rebuilt and continued operations. The collection documents in detail the various aspects involved in the operation of a small business, though the bulk of the documents in the collection concern the financial aspect of the business.
